Introduction

The Barbados Association of Texas created these scholarships to assist post high-school students. The first of these scholarships were awarded in 1993 and the tradition has continued every year since then. These scholarships are open to any resident of the State of Texas who submits the application in a timely manner and meets all criteria. A student may receive an award on a single occurrence only.

The closing date for this application is October 15th. Scholarship winners will be contacted and awards will be presented at the Barbados Association of Texas' Annual Independence Day Celebration and Scholarship Awards Banquet in November at a venue location to be announced.

A scholarship committee has been established to determine which applicant(s) will receive the scholarship award(s). All decisions made by the Scholarship Committee are final.
